Partea I: CITIT

A. Many homes have a kitchen room or outside kitchen area devoted to preparation of meals and food, and may have a dining room, dining hall, or another designated area for eating. Some trains have a dining car. Most societies also have restaurants and/or food vendors, so that people may eat when away from home, when lacking time to prepare food, or as a social occasion. At picnics and food festivals, eating is in fact the primary purpose of a social gathering.

People usually have two or three meals a day regularly. Snacks of smaller amounts may be consumed between meals. Having three well-balanced meals will then account to some 1800–2000 kcal; which is the average requirement for a regular person. Leading nutritionists believe that instead of indulging oneself in three large meals each day, it is much healthier and easier on the metabolism to eat five smaller meals each day (e.g. better digestion, easier on the lower intestine to deposit wastes; whereas larger meals are tougher on the digestive tract).

C. Ion Luca Caragiale (February 13, 1852 – July 9, 1912) was a Wallachian-born Romanian playwright, short story writer, poet, theater manager, political commentator and journalist. Leaving behind an important cultural legacy, he is considered one of the greatest playwrights in Romanian language and literature, as well as one of its most important writers and a leading representative of local humor. Alongside Mihai Eminescu, Ioan Slavici and Ion Creangă, he is seen as one of the main representatives of Junimea, an influential literary society with which he nonetheless parted during the second half of his life. His work, for four decades, covers the ground between Neoclassicism, Realism, and Naturalism, building on an original synthesis of foreign and local influences.

Although few in number, Caragiale's plays constitute the most accomplished expression of Romanian theater, as well as being important venues for criticism of late 19th-century Romanian society. Avatar is a 2009 American epic science fiction film written and directed by James Cameron, and starring Sam Worthington, Zoe Saldana, Stephen Lang, Michelle Rodriguez, Joel David Moore, Giovanni Ribisi and Sigourney Weaver. The film is set in the mid-22nd century, when humans are mining a precious mineral called unobtainium on Pandora, a lush habitable moon of a gas giant in the Alpha Centauri star system.

Development of Avatar began in 1994, when Cameron wrote an 80-page treatment for the film. Filming was supposed to take place after the completion of Cameron's 1997 film Titanic, for a planned release in 1999, but according to Cameron, the necessary technology was not yet available to achieve his vision of the film. Work on the language of the film's extraterrestrial beings began in summer 2005, and Cameron began developing the screenplay and fictional universe in early 2006. Avatar was officially budgeted at $237 million. Other estimates put the cost between $280 million and $310 million for production and at $150 million for promotion. Avatar premiered in London on December 10, 2009, and was internationally released on December 16 and in the United States and Canada on December 10, 2009, to positive critical reviews and commercial success. B. The FALKLAND Islands (or Islas Malvinas in Spanish)are located off the coast of Argentina, in the South Atlantic Ocean. The Falklands war refers to a conflict between Great Britain and Argentina between March and June of 1982. The political history of the islands is complex and goes back to rival claims of discovery by Spanish and British governments in the 16th century. In 1690 Great Britain named the islands after the treasurer of the navy the Viscount Falkland (the Spanish name Malvinas comes from a French colony from Saint Malo that settled there.) Possession of the islands has been disputed many times since their discovery. Leading up to the 1982 conflict, the Argentine and UK governments had been engaged in negotiations over the islands' sovereignty but when the talks failed in January of 1982, Argentina whose current leader was general Leopoldo Galtieri, began planning an invasion.

On 2 April, 1982 the British forces of 68 marines and 11 sailors were quickly overwhelmed by a surprise attack from 92 Argentine Special Forces Troops, who landed in 21 small assault craft. About 60 Argentine troops captured the Royal Marine barracks without resistance, and another 30 headed for the governor's house.
